Gov. Hogg will go down in history as the great unconstitutional governor of the Lone Star state.

The people should keep in mind that Gov. Hogg's administration has cost Texas over $10,00,000 more than that of Ross!

It is conceded by all conservative people that Todd Warden will be elected Sheriff of Collin county by a handsome majority next month.

Go to the polls and exercise your sufferage by voting for that distinguished jurist, scholar and gentleman for governor, Judge T. L. Nugent.

A governor who cannot gain a walkover for the second term without devoting six months on the stump justly elicits the suspician of his constituency.

The man who goes to the polls this election and votes for the people's party candidates will do a service to his county which will the gratitude of his posterity.

Gov. Hogg says the sugar bounty bill is unconstitutional. What a pity he did not read the constitution before he dotted the i's and crossed the t's in the commission bill.

Hogg refused the sugar bounty of $44,000 per year which is due to the good people of Texas. Thus in one item during Gov. Hogg's two years administration Texas has lost $88,000!

If the Hogg speakers would lay aside the subject "Clark, Cuney and the coons" and discuss their own rotten and inconsistant state platform they would show the faith that is in them.

Gov. Hogg refused to accept $44,000 for the state of Texas from the United State government because he did not want to encourage extravagance. What about paying railroad commissioners $12,000 for doing nothing?

Gov. Hogg is an enemy to organized labor which is proven by the fact that he and his henchmen held a secret meeting at the capitol and subscribed to a fund for the purpose of starting a newspaper to break up the alliance of Texas.

It is perfectly evident that the Hogg followers are getting badly scared. They are now appealing to the people's party for help. This appealing will be all in vain. The toilers propose to stand by their chief, Judge Nugent, against whom the campaign slanders has not the cheek to hurl the slimy charges so common with the Hogg followers.

Gov. Hogg can construe the constitution of the United States and declare the sugar bounty bill unconstitutional, but he is not sufficiently well acquainted with the constitution of Texas to tell when a railroad commission law or an alien land law passed by the legislature on his own recommendation and personal supervision are constitutional.

When J. L. Doggett was making his great speech in favor of an elective commission Gov. Hogg sent Hon. Tom Brown to Mr. Doggett and informed the latter gentleman that if the legislature passed an elective commession he (Hogg) would veto it. Thus like an autocrat he lashed the legislature into obedience of his will and burdened our people with a worthless commission.

Gov. Hogg tries to manufacture a little political capitol by refusing the sugar bounty due to Texas. He claims it to be unconstitutional. Hogg's past experience with that instrument will make a poor witness of him. His knowldege of the constitution is limited indeed. Every important law passed under his supervision has proven a failure. If this $88,000 had been due to Gov. Hogg

The attorney general of Texas was pulled too soon.

For the past ten days Collin county has been a veritable Hogg ranche.

Chas. A. Culberson and his pa have done great things for Texas, to let Charley tell it.

Chas. A. Culberson & Father, dispensers of p(?)u(?)r(?)e democracy under the Hogg lash.

The candidates of the people's party of Collin county are good citizens and will compare well with our dear friend John H Bingham.

Capt. John H. Bingham, of the Enquirer, says the writer is an infidel "for the want of a little sense." It might be stated upon equally as good authority that Mr. Bingham is a Hogg man for the want of a great deal of sense.

We might inform our "religious" cotempoary, the Enquirer, that at least three of the candidates whom he supports are infidels, but we are inclined to believe that church issues are not in this campaign without the man who looks like John H. Bingham, succeeds in making them as such.

We have heard of one candidate who is a democratic nominee in this county and whose name appears on the "Sunday law" petition. Wonder if our Hogg democratic friends propose to scratch his name when they go to vote. If they do we propose to see that they are read out of the party (?)

The Enquirer, not many years ago raised a huge howl against "short haired" women, "preachers" and "vote as you pray" class. In fact he was very uneasy about the unity of church and state. Well, we are glad to know that our editorial friend, who looks like John H. Bingham, is "reformed" and we trust that he will yet condescend to lift his pursuasive voice in our behalf.

A committee of citizens from Blue Ridge called on Capt. Bingham last Saturday to see the original copy of the petition which is being used as a campaign document. While looking over said document this committee saw the names of several good democrats. Mr. Bingham immediately informed them not to say anything about these fellows. It was not proposed to injure any one except those on the campaign circular. If such is the spirit of christianity we have been informed wrong.

It has entered the mind of John H. Bingham that it would be a stroke of political policy to brand citizens as infidels. Now, we are not going to charge Jno. H. Bingham as being an infidel, for that would be none of our business. His religious views are his own, not ours, and does not concern us or the public. As to the religious proclivities of Captain Bingham's favorite candidate for sheriff we are not here to question, yet it will not do to draw a comparison between him and Todd Warden.

Our religious friend, who looks like the editor of the Enquirer, has imagined that we threatened to have him arrested for forgery, slander, etc. This is a mistake, as we suppose, "for the want of sense." No, Captain, we never did make any such threats and YOU CANNOT FIND A MAN WHO WILL TESTIFY TO SUCH A STATEMENT. Since we have been informed of your "reformation," we have no desire to "harrass" you by legal proceedings, even if we had cause. On the other hand you will find the editor of this paper always ready to cover you with the mantle of charity so long as you continue to walk the path of "rectitude" and do not try to injure the character of others.

A good meal at the Kentucky house for only 25 cents, we guarantee that he would have took it because it would have been right.

WEAVER IN IOWA.

He Addressed a Large Crowd and Tells of His Southern Trip.

Knoxville, Iowa, Oct. 20.—Gen. J. B. Weaver, the people's party candidate for president, spoke here this afternoon to a large crowd. Gen. Weaver related a number of incidents of his southern trip. The solid south, he said, is solid no longer. The whites who have always voted the democratic ticket will very largely vote the people's party ticket this fall. The speaker said he honestly believed with a fair ballot and fair count a majority of the whites in every southern state will this fall cast their votes for the people's ticket. This land slide to the people's party, the speaker contended is the only thing which can insure a fair ballot. The republican party has controlled the federal government ever since the war with the exception of a few years and never succeeded in remedying matters. It could not be remedied from the outside; reform must come from within. The speaker said of course there has been violence and eggs, but he wanted it understood that Georgia had no monopoly on the egg business. He asserted that only a few days ago in Kansas, congressman Otis was egged, as also a traveling man who looked like Otis.

Gen. Weaver said the people should own railways and telegraph. He said telegraphs were controlled by monopolists and that is the reason the Weaver meetings only get a few lines in the morning papers while the newspapers should be spread from Minnefota to California.

Weaver's Brave Words.

General Weaver in closing his Pulaski, (Tenn.) speech said: I am so thankful that I have had an opportunity to talk to you today. They said I dared not come here. I knew that I dared to come, and that I would come. I would come, as Martin Luther says, If the devils were as thick as the tiles on the roof. [Prolonged applause.] However, I knew your people. I knew that I would meet with a hearty welcome from the magnanimous hearts and minds of these good people of Giles county, and I want to thank you from the depths of my heart. I can not trust myself to again talk about our relations when here. The tenderest relations existed between myself and my friends. I know I would be overcome, but I want to thank you anew, and if we never meet again, God grant that we may meet in that upper and better kingdom where there will be no union and no confederate, but all one in Christ Jesus. [Prolonged applause.

Nugent At Tyler.

Tyler, Tex, Oct. 20.—Judge Nugent spoke to-day at the grand opera house. A large audience of Hogg, Clark and third party men were present. The galleries were even filled with negroes. Col. Herndon occupied a position on the stand.

ARGYLE, Denton Co. Tex.,
Oct. 9, 1892.

Editor Democrat.

Dear Sir:—I see in some of the partisan papers, charges are made against General Weaver's war record while in Tennessee, which are untrue. Weaver was Colonel while in command under General Dodge. Gen. Dodge's headquarters were at Corrinth, Miss.

I was in General Roddy's cavalry at that time. We scouted through North Alabama, Mississippi and Tennessee. Roddy and Dodge engaged in several fights while the latter was stationed at Corrinth. After Dodge left Corrinth he moved to Box chapel, 3 miles from Corrinth. Weaver did not get all the hogs, etc., there. Roddy scouted in Tennessee to get up hogs, cattle, corn and wheat for the army and I know what I am talking about. There was nothing for Weaver to get after Roddy left.

The statement of Mr. Harris is correct. I talked to a gentleman at Denton a few days ago. He was just from Tennessee, and said Weaver was O. K., that he bothered no one while in command there. I am a confederate soldier and am willing to give justice to every citizen, North and South.

There was no mud slinging at Weaver the first time he was nominated. But now when he is nominated by the common people and stands a showing of being elected he is to be slandered by unprincipled partisans of of the old parties. If either of the old parties had nominated him we would not have known but what he was the greatest man in America. There has been a campaign document handed me which makes me almost endorse what Judge Ballard said when the Judge was a Sunday school boy, he believed the scriptures regarding the story about Annias and his wife being struck dead for lying. He doubted it now and thought their decendents had emigrated to this country and were now engaged in editing the old party papers.

Truly, WM. DANIEL.

FROM WYLIE.

Wylie, Texas, Oct. 14th, '92.
Editor Democrat.

On last Saturday night week Judge Abernathy and Mr. Hultsman, of Morris county, engaged in a joint debate. The former in favor of the so called democracy, the latter in behalf of the principles advocated by the people's party. Mr. Hultsman opened the discussion with an hour's speech in which he showed the corruption and rascality in both the old parties. He said the only hope of the common people was in the people's party, that both the old party leaders were the agents of Wall street; that they were owned and controled by the monied aristocracy of the east. He said the rebel war was over, and that the blue and the gray were uniting against a common enemy. Demonstrations made by the audience led us to believe that the majority accepted what he said as being true in every particular. Judge Abernathy in behalf of plutocracy and corporate powers made a manfully effort to defend the rascality and fraud practiced by the leaders of the plutocratic parties. From the tone of his argument he must have thought he was speaking to a set of ignorant fools. He never met any of the argument of his competitor. He offered nothing for the depressed condition of the masses only to stick to the grand old democratic party which had done so much for them in the party. He abused and slandered the leaders of the people's party; he said they were office hunters; that Weaver was a bitter enemy of the south. Some one in the audience ask him how he liked exoficio, he gave them no answer but simply crowed like a banty rooster at them. A man whom the people of Collin have honored with the office of county judge for two terms and now he has the gall to come before them for the third term. Some old gray headed citizen in the audience asked him if third termism was democratic. He answered them by saying that was all right, he would get there with all four of his feet. Such answers to old citizens of Collin county who are in earnest and who are seeking the truth is enough to raise the righteous indignation of all good citizens of Collin county. I think in November the people of Collin county will retire the Judge to private life. I am not of sufficient age to cast a ballot but if I were I would cast a vote in the interest of old Collin by retiring the Judge to private life.

THAT STOLEN MEMORIAL.

John, The Bolter

Colonel Henry Clay seems somewhat discouraged because of the failure of his trip to Austin to get that petition. He knew it was not there before he went. By the by how is it that the Colonel is so deeply interested in the welfare of the third party candidates. Does he propose to establish his claim to sound democracy by voting for the third party county ticket? Does his followers in the Clark ranks propose to be used by him for such purposes? Play an open hand gentlemen. There is a God in Isreal.—McKinney Enquirer, October 22nd.

The above is a fair specimen of the writings of the expert truth teller (?) that looks like the editor of the Enquirer—that is to say John the bolter and scratcher, who is now making a decided success of his unparalled rediculousness as a would be party disciplinarian. I never went to Austin to see about that stolen petition that John the bolter is now using to the injury of the county democratic ticket and to advance the interests of the third party ticket. That is another prevarication of the said John the bolter. But it is now hardly expected of him to tell anything that looks like the truth. I was ready to leave the city for Austin before I saw or heard of the midnight circular issued from the office of the Enquirer by the man that looks like its editor, which has given rise to the present controversy. But while in the city of Austin I took the pains to call on the secretary of the state who is the legal custodian of the memorial which the said John the bolter has garbeled to get out a "wild cat" circular and I found that that official does not know how or when it left his office. It is supposed to have been obtained like the Hogg convention got the third party platform—That is the said convention did take, steal and carry said platform from its owner without the consent of the said owner and with the intent to defraud the said third party out of the same and to appropriate it to their own use against the common decency of all political parties. So the said petition seems to left its place in the archives of the state.

John the bolter is reminded that when he peblishes a public document that he is expected to be honest and fair with his readers and the public and not print a part and suppress the rest,

It appears that this professional and habitual growler and bolter has got some body to write him an editorial two and a half colums long explaining his "atitood" on moral questions, including the reasons for his "wild cat circular." The said John, the bolter, certainly does not aim to get that elaborate, moral editorial off on the public as his own production. It is not John's language, John's length nor John's ideas. If the public is not mistaken he "bolted" Senator Finch, of whom he now speaks with reverence, because Mr. Finch made a speech in favor of the Sunday law, while in the senate.

It seems that this bolting editor of our "religious weakly" is determined to see that Todd Warden is the next sheriff of Collin county. It is generally conceeded by the public that he is doing more in that direction than even Todd himself.

It would be of much interest to the public to know if John the bolter can not, even just as a sort of novelty, tell one campaign truth in his paper, also will he not inform the public who wrote that two and a half column editorial comment on his and Todd's "wild cat circulars." Dr. Talmage wants a man of that sort to write sermons for him and will pay him a dandy salary.

When an editor has to explain up in an editorial two and a half columns in length he knows he is in the soup. He's on the run.

Will John, the bolter, tell the people in his next issue how he got that petition out of the archives of the state and why he published a part of it and suppressed the balance?

No true friend of the county democratic ticket endorses such acts. John, the bolter, never renders service to the democratic party in the county until he gets mad at somebody then he spits his venom out. Some enterpresing "backer" of prize fights could get up an interesting "mill" by getting John, the bolter, in the ring with an old fashioned skunk and see which could out-stink the other—That is the way they both do their fighting.

John, the bolter, is specially invited to attend the next meeting of the Clark club. It will bring his liver all right.

The above named gentlemen are patrons of the Petersburg school, taught by Prof. T. A. Coleman, county school superintendent.

We are requested to announce that no election of trustees has been held in said district for several years and that the above petition contains the names of at least, three fourths of the patrons of said school. Notwithstanding this fact Prof. Coleman ignored the petition and appointed a set of trustees without recognizing those named in the above petition. This is, we suppose, a sample of "majority rule" as practiced by our opponents. As the above is made public by request, for further information we refer to the signers of said petition.

A Warning.

Fort Worth, Tex. Oct. 23, '92.
To the People's Party of Tex:

There never yet was a political party or other organization that did not develop sooner or later a creature of whom Benedict Arnold was the proto-type. It is safe to predict that the people's party will not prove an exception to this rule. In some of the other states, a few men have trained with it up to the election day and then have sought to betray it. It is improbable, but not impossible, that a similar experience may be in store for us in Texas on the eve of our election day. However, he who is forewarned is forearmed. Be on the lookout, therefore, my friends and countrymen, ready to spot any such betrayer of your trust, and hand him down to eternal infamy. No one except a traitor will advise you to vote for Clark. No one but a traitor will advise you to vote for Hogg, and yet claim to be a member of our party. He who claims to be a people's party man will not advise you, either directly or indirectly, to abandon Nugent, or indeed any of our candidates, will prove himself a deep dyed villain who is capable of selling his father into slavery, and of forcing his mother to die in the poor house. May God forever curse such a wretch if he shall dare to attempt to betray us, when we are in sight of a victory, that will redeem this suffering land of ours from the woes put on us by its enemies, and will insure to our fathers, sisters, brothers and children the glorious heritage of liberty.

Corrupting The Ballot Box.

In view of the fact that the Hogg executive committee of Collin county have levied an assessment of $12.50 to $50.00 on each of their candidates for county offices it would be well for the voters to read the following which is a part of the oath of office which each one of them, if elected, will be required to take.

"I further solemnly swear (or affirm) that I have not directly or indirectly paid, offered or promised to pay, contributed nor promised to contribute any money or valuable thing or promised any public office or employment as a reward for giving or withholding a vote at the election at which I was elected (or if the office is one of appointment) to secure my appointment, so help me God."

Can a man who has paid his money into this corruption fund, so raised by the Hogg committee, take the office without forswearing himself; and should the people vote for any man who will so far infringe upon the solemnity of the oath he has to take as to pay over his money to corrupt the ballot box and unlawfully controll votes? Such schemes merit public indignation and the candidates who are parties to it should be buried beneath a storm of honest ballots.

Mrs. President Harrison Dead.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—Mrs. Harrison is no more. At 1:40 a. m. came the end. For the second time in the history of the White House the president's wife died while in its walls. Mrs. Harrison met death with the patience and resignation of a devout christian, and her last hours were comparitively free from pain.

Funeral services in Washington will be held Thursday morning and as private as the official position of the president will permit. They will be conducted according to Presbyterian forms by Dr. Tunis Shamlin, rector of the church of the Covenant, of which the president and his wife have been regular attendants. The body will not lie in state. After services here the funeral party will leave Washington Thursday noon for Indianapolis, where services of a more public character will take place. The funeral train will reach Indianapolis early Friday morning and about 10 o'clock church services will begin in the First Presbyterian church of Indianapolis, on the corner of New York and Pennsylvania streets. Rev. Dr. M. I. Haines, pastor of the church will officiate. The body will then be takon to Crown Hill cemetery and interred, after which the president will return to Washington.

Chas. A. Culberson, attorney general of Texas, was elected two years ago on the reputation of his father. He will be defeated this year on the reputation of Hogg. We would advise him hereafter to run on his merits if he has any when he becomes of age.

Judge J. M. Moore's speech in favor of Judge Nugent at Denton is pronounced one of the ablest of the campaign.

In the language of George Washington and Capt. Greer, "Put no one but Americans on guard" on November the 8th next.

Fort Worth, Tex. Oct. 25, '92.
To the People's party of Collin county, Texas:

Judge Nugent is in the race to stay. He will not withdraw. He is confident of election. If our people will stand firm he is certain of election. Every vote will count this year. Let there be no trading. Vote our ticket solid. Victory is in sight. Let us reach out and secure it. H. L. BENTLEY.
Campaign Manager.

The Hogg managers are trying every conceivable plan to get Nugent's voters to desert him. They will not do it. Their chief "is the noblest Roman of them all" and they will not commit political treason by deserting him.

Gov. Hogg dubs the Dallas News as "Nancy Jane." At the same time "Nancy" is making the fur fly, to the discomforture of the Governor.

A sure cure for indigestion. After eating a hearty meal at A. T. Wilson & Co's smoke a "Texas Standard."

Necessity to approach your columns. Just how the people can think that either of the old parties can better their condition is a mystery. We have before our eyes the bad record of national and state legislation. The cause of this must be underated brain or bad faith of our public servants. I do not think that all are dishonest but the acts of our legislative members, national and state, proves that every effort has been made to crush out labor. It takes honesty and brains combined to stand for the rights of the people. In my opinion, the only way to secure reform is to get a new political deal. I have been living in this government for 71 years and am frank to say that labor has got to a point where it cannot be worsted by a change, therefore I advise all voters to study the best method of reform in our government. Let us do justice to both Labor and Capital regardless of any section of our common country, laying aside all prejudice. I cannot stay with you much longer and I bid every reform God speed. Yours Truly,

H. L. S.

The third party will not win this year, but it will have the satisfaction of knowing that it was the biggest party of its age American politics has ever produced, and Texas will prove to be the banner third party state. Third partyism is bad, but Hoggism is worse.—S. A. Express.

The Democrat Supplement.

McKINNEY. TEXAS, OCTOBER 27, 1892.

UNCLE MIKE HEARD FROM.

He Will Not be Moved From the Main Issue.

Lucas, Texas, Oct. 28, 1892.—I had thought I would not say anything in this fight as there seems to be a good deal of fighting among themselves (democrats) but I received some circulars the other day from some source, I do not know whense, if I knew I would return them for my vote is not for sale and if it was it would take a stronger argument than is contained in that circular to buy it. The circular refered to is the Sunday law petition, of which you readers have all heard before. Admitting that those gentlemen did sign said petition does not cut a single figure in the case. It is only a matter of opinion., And if I have a correct idea of any Sunday law which has ever been enacted in Texas they ought to all be repealed. I do not claim to know much about our Sunday law but I have observed that the wealthy farmer with his large fields of grain drives into his fields with his machine on Sunday to save his grain and the Sunday law never takes hold of him, but if a poor wage worker were to go into the shop or a little one horse farmer go into the field on Sunday to earn bread for his half naked and hungry children, would not the law interfere? If not, society would. Do not understand me as being opposed to a Sunday law, but if we are to have one let it reach all classes alike and let it cover the whole day. Another fact is that the very ones who are using this petition to prejudice the voters of Collin are the men who are least calculated to respect a Sunday law. I heard of a town h-o-g d-e-m-o-c-r-a-t coming out the other Sunday and getting a county h-o-g christian d-e-m-o-c-r-a-t and pulled out to the bottom with guns on shoulders. No, gentlemen, the religious people of Collin will give but little attention to your petitions concerning our Sunday law unless they come from a purer source than I think please state in the Democrat if he expects to take the office for the fees of the office or are you another $1800 cut? How do you stand on spending the people's money on a well to furnish the town folks water? Please answer so I can vote inteligently.

UNCLE MIKE.

A CARD.

A circular is being put in the hands of the voters of Collin county, purporting to be a petition of the citizens of Collin county, asking the repeal of all Sunday laws and addressed to the 22nd legislature of the State of Texas. As this document now appears, twenty six names of alleged signers are given, whilst I am informed the original petition contained about three hundred—and I am also informed that the original is in the possession of J. H. Bingham of the McKinney Enquirer—and that the circular aboye referred to emenates from his office.

My name appears in the list of signers among the 26 given to the public. But whether my signature to the original in Mr. Bingham's posession is genuine or not, I cannot say—my personal relations towards him having been for years of such a character as to preclude all intercourse between us, and consequently, I have had no opportunity to inspect what is claimed to be the original in his posession. I say this, because I have no recollection of ever seeing such a petition or of ever signing this or any one of this character. And I now solemnly assert and declare that I never did nor do not now entertain sentiments at all or in anyway in harmony with the petition referred to; and that I did not and would not upon deliberation sign such a petition. I further declare that if it be true that I signed said petition, it was done without a knowledge of its purport, and as hundreds of gratuitous petitions are signed every year to oblige friends, with no thought of perpetrating a wrong—As an instance of the habit prevailing as to this sort of thing I refer to our well known and highly esteemed fellow citizen one of the suppressed signers of this same petition, and who so incredulous, when informed he had signed it, that he took Dolyh Parker with him and inspected the original to find, not only that it was genuine, but that Parker was also a signer. The assertions of Mr. Bagley that he would not have signed such an instrument knowing its contents, will not be discredited in the face of his well known character for rectitude and moral worth. And so of many other signers equally good and reliable citizens, who disclaim all knowledge of having signed such a paper or of being in harmony with its purposes and declarations.

I hereby certify my willingness to make offidavit to the perfect truthfulness of every statement I have here made.

TODD WARDEN,

The Hogg club was slimly attended last Monday night. Gloom seems to be settling over the whole business.

From every portion of the county comes the cheering news that the Hogg ticket will be overwhelmingly defeated on the 8th of November.

Hon. Buck Walton address a good sized crowd at the opera house last Tuesday night in the interest of George Clark. His speech was highly appreciated by his friends.

Chas. A Culberson spoke at the courthouse last Monday evening in favor of the Hogg ticket. He made a vigorous attack on Gov. Throckmorton, claiming that the governor had left the democratic party.

We learn from different sources that the Hogg managers are getting scared and are attempting to get a complete poll of the county for governor. They claim to have plenty of money to do the "work" with and propose to be very "liberal" with it. Our friends throughout the county are advised to look out for traitors.

A reported outbreak of cholera at Helmetta, N. J., created much excitement in that vicinisy. Investigation showed that the disease was not cholera but a violent dysentery which is almost as severe and dangerous as cholera. Mr. Walter Willard, a prominent merchant of Jamesburg, two miles from Helmetta, says Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy has given great satisfaction in the most severe cases of dysenterry. It is certainly one of the best things ever made." For sale by R. E. Bristol, Druggist.

It is amusing to hear Hogg and Clark in their speeches eulogizing the people's party and declaring them to be an honest lot of fellows. A few months ago we had no standing in the estimation of these gentlemen, now we are honored by them.

Our opponents will hardly succeed in making this campaign one of slander in Collin county this fall. The people are devoting their time in studying the issues of the day and not to reading campaign circulars calculated to prey on prejudice.

FELL DEAD.

These words are very familiar to our readers, as not a day passes without the report of the sudden death of some prominent citizen. The explanation is "Heart Disease." Therefore beware if you have any of the following symptoms: Short Breath, Pain in Side, Smothering Spells, Swollen Angles, Asthmatic Breathing, Weak and Hungry Spells, tenderness in shoulder or arm, fluttering of heart or irregular pulse. These symptoms mean heart disease. The most reliable remedy is Dr. Miles' new heart cure, which has saved thousands of lives. Book of testimonials free at Smith Bros. drug store, who also sells the new heart cure. no. 1.

Rogers & McMullen will sell you anything in their line as cheap as the cheapest. They will only charge you 5cts. for a "Texas Standard" cigar.

FAIL TO DO OUR DUTY.

Everybody has at times failed to do their duty towards themselves. Hundreds of lady readers suffer from sick headache, nervousness, sleeplessness and female troubles. Let them follow the example of Mrs. H. Herbechter, Stevens Point, Wis., who for five years suffered greatly from nervous prostration and sleeplessness, tried physicians and different medicines without success. But one bottle of Dr. Miles' nervine caused sound sleep every night and she is feeling like a new person. Mrs. Elizabeth Wheeler, Laramie City, Wyoming, who tried all other remedies, declares that after three week's use of the nervine for headache, nervous prostration, etc., she was entirely relieved. Sold by Smith Bros. Trial bottle free. no. 1.

Nugent at Comanche.

Comanche, Tex., Oct. 25.—Judge T. L. Nugent addressed 2000 people at the courthouse last night. His speech was received with enthusiasm.

There is no use of any one suffering with the cholera when Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy can be procured. It will give relief in a few minutes and cure in a short time. I have tried it and know.—W. H. Clinton, Helmetta, N. J. The epidemic at Helmetta was at first believed to be cholera, but subsequent investigation proved it to be a violent form of dysentery, almost as dangerous as cholera. This Remedy was used there with great success. For sale by R. E. Bristol, Druggist.

To The People's Party in Texas.

From the moment Gov. Hogg declared from the stump that there was an alliance between "Judge Nugent and Clark, Cunep & Co," there has been a manifest disposition on the part of our enemies to give currency to the report that Judge Nugent would remain in the race untill the very eve of the election and then withdraw and turn his forces to the support of Judge Clark.

The wish that such a thing might occur is doubtless father to the thought, and the only ground for the report. As may be seen from Judge Nugent's card of denial of the 12th, inst., the rumor is absolutely false. There may be some withdrawing done before the election, but you may rest assured of the fact that it will not be by any of our candidates.

The people's party movement is one of clear cut independent political action in the interest of reform, and is being pressed to success upon the highest possible plane of clean politics having only the stimulus of pure patriotism. And whatever other parties might wish in the matter, these facts would forbid, yea, make it impossible for us to decend to any of the crooked or questionable methods of modern political corruption and trickery. Such a course, in any event, on our part would be the greatest possible folly. When we consider the fact that from the most carefully collected data from all over the state, we can show that nearly 43 per cent of the entire vote of the state is now in line with us, and that the returns of the past two weeks show that Judge Nugent is more than twenty thousand ahead of the next strongest man in the state, it would be treason to our glorious cause and the grossest infidelity to the thousands of our patriotic reformers all over the state, for us at this time, with victory within our grasp, to cast aside our assurances of success by any such treacherous action on the part of our leaders.

No, my countrymen, you need have no fear that Judge Nugent will not remain in the race to the end. He is a pure patriot, not a political trickster and he is in this fight because he knows he is right, and would fight it out to the finish if he knew he would not poll ten thousand votes in the state. He is a man who will never sacrifice principle to policy.

It is not impossible that, in their desperation, just on the eve of the election our enemies may manufacture reports of this kind, or even produce fraudulent circulars or telegrams purporting to come from Judge Nugent, or these headquarters, to the effect that he has withdrawn. But you are hereby authorized to denounce all such reports of whatever character and from whatever source as forgeries and falsehoods. Be prepared for anything, and be astonished at nothing that may come from the camp of the enemy.

Judge Clark and most of his canvassers have been disposed to treat us as honorable political antagonists, forbearing to heap vituperation and abuse upon us, while the Hogg faction, from his excellency, with Coke his Chief Bugleman, down to the small fry, have denounced us as fools and traitors, unworthy of respectful consideration or toleration. Therefore, it ought not be deemed strange if our batteries should pour hot shot into the Hogg camp all along the line with more zest and bitterness than we attack the Clark forces, who have been disposed to treat us with the consideration due an honorable antagonist.

In conclusion, let me say to our friends in every part of the state: Continue to press the conflict earnestly and persistently all along the line, relaxing no energy until the polls are closed on the 8th, of November, and we shall beyond the least reasonable doubt achieve the grandest victory for industrial freedom and equal rights ever won in the history of civilization.

Yours for good government,
H. L. BENTLEY.

Working to The Same End.

Mr. Cleveland, replying to the assurance from Kansas that the electoral vote of that state will not be given in support of iniquitous tariff protection, wrote: "Nothing could be more encouraging than to see Kansas break away from the partisan bonds that have so long and firmly held her and turn to the support of a principle which promises prosperity and contentment to all our people and a fair chance to those who have long borne the rule of unjust taxation for the benefit of hard taskmasters." Could he view with such favor the fusion in Kansas by which tariff reform is made the great issue with what sensation must he see in Texas the democratic machine break away from that principle and set up the Reagan silver miner's, third party 65 cent silver dollar above all other issues, principles and demands? In Kansas the third party yields to tariff reform and joins the democracy upon that plank; in Texas the democratic machine subordinates tariff reform, Mr. Cleveland and everything else for which the national party is struggling to the Reagan Hogg silver fraud. In Kansas not only populists but a respectable element of the republican party has joined with democrats to break down the robber tariff. When Mr. Cleveland indorses this movement in Kansas and looks to Texas where the machine is fighting the national party he refuses absolutely to indorse it as the democratic party. Probably he foresees the result here. Texas parralleled with Kansas. A Coke in Texas shelved with Ingalls shelved in Kansas. Texas and Kansas wrested from demagogues and intolerant extremists and safely landed in the lines of the national reformers. Call the patriotic people in these states democrats, republicans or populists, fusionists, fools, "skunks," "dogs" or "hounds," they are working to the same end—the redemption of Texas and Kansas and this whole country from the tax-eating bosses, who feel the ground slipping from under them. Mr. Cleveland sees the landslide.—Dallas News.

McKinney's Oportunity.

McKinney is now the western terminus of the East Line and Red River railroad, a line extending from Jefferson through a rich and beautiful country, a road that will at no distant day be one of the most important in the state. Let our enterprising citizens go to work and get the work shops of the road located in our city, with the Houston & Texas Central extending from the Red River on the north to the Gulf on the south and the East Line from the eastern boundery of the state will at no distant day be extended westward to the Panhandle, thus making McKinney one of the most important rail road centers in this section of the state. By conscient of action among our business men the location of shops and depots could be secured and hundreds of population added to our growing city. The employees of the railroad company would have to have houses and the money expended by them for rents, buying and building houses and living would all be spent in McKinney, thus increasing our business. Citizens of McKinney, it will cost nothing to make the effort, thus building up and adding to the wealth, beauty and population of the queen city. Who will start the enterprise?

I was suffering 10 years from shocks in my head, so much so that at times I didn't expect to recover. I took medicines from many doctors, but did not get any relief until I took Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic; the second dose relieved me and 2 bottles cured me. S. W. PECK.

WOMAN!

WOMAN is a marvelous creature. In her we have the most complex, most perfect, most beautiful work of God.

Her nature is cast in a more perfect mould than man's. It contains a larger proportion of the finer elements that link the race to a higher and better destiny.

She embodies in the most perfect degree the graces of modesty, patience, gratitude and devotion. These attributes have won for her, under the benign spirit of the Gospel of Christ, that exalted social position for which her Creator intended her.

Perfect as in her moral nature, it is no more admirable than the physical structure that holds it.

This intricate piece of mechanism, so finely balanced, so graceful, so compact of texture, so perfect in every detail, excites our wonder and awakens our admiration more and more, as we become aware of its completeness.

The Almighty created woman for a high and holy mission. He implanted in her a separate system of organic life, and prescribed duties for her to perform. To perfect His design and better enable her to fulfill her sacred trust, He blended the nobler attributes of mind with perfection of form. These qualities were made sympathetic. The perfection of one depends on the others, the weakness of one affects them all, and an injury to one throws the entire machinery of her multiple nature out of its intended balance.

The original mental and physical harmony of woman has not been maintained. While she has developed intellectually, expanded socially and advanced morally, she has sadly degenerated physically.

Therefore we have prepared and put upon the market
